

Filipinos are quite adventurous in their choices of gifts, so why don't we try an innovative and not so expensive gift of fossilized leaves? A leaf is comprised of a breathtaking complex of very, very fine veins. Their intricate patterns can rival those of expensive laces.

Click this link to read more about this article...